4. The future strategies of the SC

1. The oath of the newly elected members of the SC

In the small auditorium Mary Luckie congratulated all the newly elected Student Council members and wished them good luck and prosperous work in AUA. After her speech the newly elected members took an oath before a small audience and promised to do their best to make students' life on the campus interesting.

2. Reception at AUA Cafeteria

There was organized a small reception at AUA Cafeteria on congratulating SC newly elected team.

3. The election of the other members of the SC

According to the SC Constitution the elected members of the SC have the right to give their votes for the students who want to be a SC member and who have not been elected in the general election. They propose their candidacy and the SC members decide who will be in their group. In room 23a 5 students proposed their candidacy by introducing themselves with a short speech after which the SC members elected 4 of them.

4. The future strategies of the SC

In room 23a an open meeting was held during which the SC members spoke about their strategies, which will be followed during their “governing” period. The SC president spoke about their goals, which they would try to reach. He said that the first thing they are going to do is to make the internal and external communications more extended. The SC will organize such events that will somehow help AUA students develop their professional qualities and mental abilities. The members of the Alumni Association offered their support in realizing those wishes and goals. The president also informed the AUA small community that they would try to organize student exchange programs that would give an opportunity to our students to communicate with students from different universities and share their professional abilities and knowledge. This is will bring a great change in the student life and also will motivate our students in their studies.

5. Adjourn

The meeting was adjourned at 6.30 p.m.
